30 August – 3 September

EUROPEAN SENIOR MEN'S TEAM CHAMPIONSHIP

VENUE: Troia Golf

Presentation

The Troiagolf Championship Course, designed by the famous American golf architect Robert Trent Jones Senior is an amazing links and one of the most fascinating golf challenges in Portugal. Located along the peninsula of Tróia, the course stands in region of outstanding natural beauty and in one of the most scenic places in Portugal, between the Atlantic Ocean and the Sado Estuary, with an imposing view over the Arrábida Mountain.

Robert Trent Jones Senior conceived a golf course with 18 holes, par 72, with a length of 6.317 meters, an extraordinary "mater piece", truly integrated in the natural landscape, a wonderful pine forest surrounded by sand dunes and the sea. The white sand is present, not only in the bunkers that protect the small and straight greens, but also in the surroundings where natural plants are found in abundance, giving it an extraordinary beauty.

There are two holes that deserve a special reference – numbers 3 and 18. Hole number 3, a par 4 with a remarkable landscape and magnificent sea view, was considered by Robert Trent Jones Senior himself as one of the best he ever designed, and choosing it as part of his ideal 18 hole course. Also, hole number 18, a par 5 with a dog-leg to the left and an elevated green and protected by three front bunkers.

The Portugal Open was held in Troiagolf Championship Course in 1983, Scotland Sam Torrance won with a score of two strokes below par, becoming the only professional achieving this result in four days of competition.

In 2002, the 15th International European Amateurs Championship, the most important European amateur golf competition, was held at Troiagolf Championship Course and brought the best 150 amateur players in Europe. The winner was the Frenchman Raphael Pellicioli, with a result of four strokes under par.

The Troiagolf Championship Course was ranked by the "Golf World" magazine in 2009 as the 20th Best Golf Course in Europe and, was included by "Golf Digest" magazine in 2005 in the list of the 100 top golf courses in the world outside the United States of America, in the 80th position and by the "Peugeot Guide" in Europe's Top 1000 Golf Courses.
