E.G.A President's Message

On behalf of the European Golf Association, I would like to welcome all competitors, officials and supporters to the 2013 International European Amateur Championship.

My special thanks go to the Royal Spanish Golf Federation for organising this event and to the officials, staff and volunteers who have helped with the preparations. I also extend my gratitude to all members of Real Golf Club el Prat who have made their excellent and challenging golf course available.

This event is an important one. It brings together many of the most talented golfers in Europe. I am certain that all players will be inspired to perform at their best and that we will see golf on the highest standard. You players can be proud to be here and represent your countries.

Since golf is an Olympic sport from Rio 2016 we might even see some of the future Olympic Athletes on the field.

I wish all participants and spectators a very successful and enjoyable championship. I hope that this experience will provide fond, lasting memories. Together, let's make this tournament a good one, and let's enjoy golf.

Antti Peltoniemi
President

R.F.E.G. President's Message

On behalf of the Royal Spanish Golf Federation, it is a great pleasure for me to welcome all participants of the International European Amateur Championship to be played at the Real Club de Golf El Prat, host of this same competition in 1995, and won by our great player Sergio García!

El Prat, one of the most important and prestigious clubs in Spain, celebrated last year its centenary. Due to the extension of Barcelona airport, El Prat had to change its location in 1997 to this new setting in Terrassa being the designer of its 45 holes, the top Australian player, Greg Norman. The championship course, is very challenging and has been venue of many major professional tournaments, I am sure you will all enjoy playing it!

My gratitude to the officials, staff, volunteers and members of the Real Club de Golf El Prat who have helped and worked hard with the preparations, and to present the course in magnificent conditions!

I encourage you all to follow the competition, where we will see golf of the highest standard, with some of the most talented amateur players in Europe.

I wish all participants, officials and spectators a very successful and enjoyable tournament, and I hope that the good weather we expect to have, will also allow you to enjoy and visit Barcelona and its surroundings.

It is a great honor for us to host this superb competition, and I look forward to seeing you all in El Prat.

BARCELONA

R.C.G El Prat President's Message

On behalf of the Real Club de Golf El Prat members I am very pleased to welcome you to our Club, and we wish you all a very successful 2013 International European Amateur Championship.

It is an honor for us to host again this important championship, following our long tradition of welcoming the best golf at international level, which includes 9 European Tour Spanish Opens and many others, such as the biennial match England vs Spain, played in our course only 3 months ago.

Last year, we proudly celebrated our 100 years of history, along our three locations: Pedralbes, in Barcelona city (1912-1954), el Prat de Llobregat (1955 – 2003) and Terrassa (2004 -). You will be playing in a new and modern course, the "Open" course, the more challenging combination of our 45 Greg Norman design holes. I hope you enjoy it and that you can develop your best golf. I am also sure our members will enjoy and appreciate the opportunity of watching high quality golf at this promising championship.

I hope all participants enjoy during these days of our facilities and have a memorable stay, including of course a visit to Barcelona, especially those who still do not know our wonderful city.

Good golf and good luck to everyone!

*Federico Montllonch
President Real Club de Golf El Prat*

International European Amateur Championship

7th - 10th August 2013

CHAMPIONSHIP CONDITIONS

1. GENERAL

1.1 Form of Play

The Championship shall be decided by stroke play over four rounds of 18 holes each day, in accordance with the Rules of Golf as approved by R&A Rules Limited, the EGA Generic Conditions, the EGA Hard Card, the Local Rules approved by the Committee and the Conditions herein.

1.2 Eligibility of Competitors

a) An entry will be accepted from any male amateur player who has been WAGRanked 1-1200 from the first WAGR Week of the Championship's year to the date of entry (see <http://www.randa.org/wagr>).

b) An entry will be accepted from any amateur player with an exact handicap of 0.0 or better. The exact handicap certified at the date of entry will be used for all purposes.

Penalty for Breach of Condition: Disqualification.

1.3 Number of Competitors

The starting field will comprise 144 competitors.

Any entrant in at least one of the following categories will be allocated a place in the starting field:

- a) The defending International European Amateur Champion.
- b) One entrant nominated by each EGA member national golf authority and four entrants nominated by the host country.
- c) Any entrant who has competed in the following International Matches', previous edition: Sir Michael Bonallack Trophy, St Andrews Trophy, Jacques L glise Trophy.
- d) The highest ranked entrants with an R&A WAGRanking 1-1200 at the closing date for entries.

Having applied Condition 1.3 (a) - (c), the remainder of the starting field, if incomplete, will comprise entrants in order of exact handicap.

Note: the Committee reserves the right to limit the number of competitors from any country in the final starting list.

1.4 Cut

The 60 lowest scores over the first 54 holes, including ties, shall qualify for the final 18 holes. If a competitor, who has posted a three-round total that will qualify for the final round, withdraws before or after the final round draw is made, the competitor's results will still be used to calculate the leading 60 places and ties that will determine the cut mark.

International European Amateur Championship

R.C.G. El Prat
7th - 10th August 2013

1.5 Caddies

A competitor is prohibited from having a professional golfer serve as his caddie during any stipulated round.

Penalty for Breach of Condition: two strokes for each hole at which any breach occurred; maximum penalty per round - four strokes (two strokes at each of the first two holes at which any breach occurred).

A competitor having a caddie in breach of this condition must immediately upon discovery that a breach has occurred ensure that he conforms with this condition for the remainder of the stipulated round. Otherwise, the competitor is disqualified.

1.6 Decision of Ties

In the event of a tie for first place after four rounds, the winner shall be decided by a play-off by stroke play over three holes to be selected by the Committee. The play-off shall start as soon as practicable after the last competitors have finished their final round. The competitor with the lowest aggregate score over the three extra holes shall be declared the winner. In the event of a further tie, the winner shall be decided hole-by-hole over the same three holes. In case of a tie for the silver or bronze medal, the places will be decided on the basis of scores recorded for the final 36, 18, 9, 6, 3 holes or last hole, in that order. If a tie still exists, an 18-hole count-back will be used on the third round and then second and first round, if necessary.

2. ENTRIES

2.1 Reserve List

If entries exceed 144, entrants will be allocated to a reserve list ordered according to Condition 1.3. Unsuccessful entrants shall be informed without delay and given the opportunity to compete if withdrawals subsequently occur. Entrance fees will be refunded to entrants balloted out who do not subsequently compete.

3. PRIZES

3.1 Title

The winner of the Championship shall be the International European Amateur Champion Golfer for a period of one year. The Championship Trophy shall be held by his national golf authority, which will be responsible for the cost of engraving, insuring and maintaining the trophy and should return it, before the next Championship, to an address named by the EGA Secretary.

3.2 Placings

The winner shall receive a gold medal, the runner up a silver medal and the third-placed competitor a bronze medal.

More Information: www.realclubdegolfelprat.com

MORE THAN ONE HUNDRED YEARS OF HISTORY ILLUSTRATE REAL CLUB DE GOLF EL PRAT'S RANK AND STANDING, CONSOLIDATED AS ONE OF THE BEST COURSES ON THE INTERNATIONAL GOLFING SCENE.

THE CLUB'S ORIGINS

The Club dates back to 1912 when the Barcelona Golf Club was set up in Pedralbes as an initiative from some golf amateurs in Barcelona's aristocracy and nobility. The club was the first golf club in the city of Barcelona. Over time, with the city's expansion, the Club was forced to make its first qualitative leap to new facilities in 1955, to El Prat de Llobregat, beside Barcelona's airport, and was subsequently renamed Real Club de Golf El Prat.

TODAY

Due to the extension of the airport in 2003, today it is located on the BonVilar estate, between Terrassa and Sabadell, only 35 minutes from Barcelona. The course extends across 210 hectares of land, beside the 32,123 acres of the Sant Llorenç del Munt i l'Obac Natural Park.

In this idyllic setting, Greg Norman designed the course's 45 holes with a unique approach that fuses playability and aesthetics, adapting them to each level and playing style, while seamlessly blending the seven courses into the landscape. In fact, respect for the environment on all levels is one of the Club's key principles, resulting in compliance with ISO 14001 certification in recognition of its commitment to sustainability.

The distinctive seal of Real Club de Golf El Prat has reached its maximum splendor in the sporting arena: it is the club with the most awards in Europe and has numerous professional members on the different national and European circuits. An excellence illustrated on nine different occasions when the Club played host to the Open de España.
