A WALK BY THE COURSE \(VIDEO\)

HISTORY:

Club de Golf Escorpión was inaugurated in 1975 as an 18-hole course designed by the American architect Ron Kirby, and afterwards, in 2005, was extended by Alfonso Vidaor to a 27 hole facility along 9 pitch & putt holes.

The club has magnificent practice facilities, and it is used every year by the Spanish national teams for their training camps.

National and occasionally international competitions are held at the club every year. The last most relevant events in women's golf have been the 2016 Spanish International Ladies' Championship "Copa S.M. La Reina" and LETAS tour events.

The club celebrated the 50th anniversary of its founding last year. It has been awarded the Merit Plate in Golf by the Royal Spanish Golf Federation and recently named Family Friendly Golf Club of the Year.
