International golf tournament for people with a handicap. 3 days - 3 courses.

Handigolf Bornholm takes place in the beginning of June on three of Bornholm's beautiful courses. The tournament is an international golf tournament for anyone with a physical or mental handicap. A-series will play stroke play while the rest of the series will play stableford.

Golf courses at Bornholm are very different, but all of them are acknowledged as challenging courses situated in picturesque scenery. The raw rocks and cliffs at Rø Golf Courses make up a stunning contrast to the fine, white sand surrounding Nexø Golf Course. And in between you will find the beautiful Bornholm Golf Course, a parkland course situated near the main town Rønne.

You will have ample opportunity to combine golf experiences with a vacation on Bornholm. Whether you travel hand in hand with the love of your life or you are bringing your kids, you can look forward to a stunning and unspoiled nature experience; feel the atmosphere in the quaint little fishing village and taste the local delicacies. Don't forget to bring your sun block – Bornholms holds the Danish record for most sunshine hours.

Bornholms Golf Club – Rønne

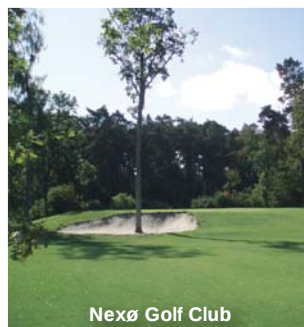

The Golf Course in Rønne is a classic and beautifully laid out parkland course with minimal wind interference. Beautiful scenery, protected area with many wild fruit trees, orchids, brooms and a rich wildlife, including nightingales. You will experience a very well groomed course which many consider as one of Denmark's most stunning parkland courses.

Nexø Golf Club – Dueodde

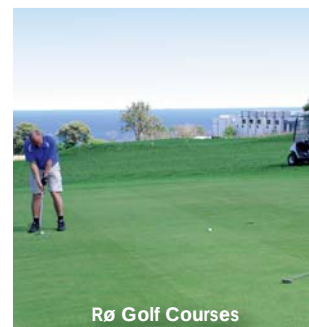

The course is laid out as a perfect blend of woodland and an open landscape. Surrounding the course are lush fields and meadows with grazing cattle. Treacherous small lakes and streams cut through the course and you'll get the feeling that you're playing a sea side course. Nexø Golf Course is situated only 800 m from Dueodde - one of the best bathing beaches in Europe.

Rø Golf Courses – Old Course

Get ready for a magnificent and unique golfing experience on one of Denmark's most memorable courses. The raw and rocky terrain has prompted many recommendations from both national and international golf journalists - Malcolm Campell from Golf Monthly wrote: "A hidden gem if ever there was one. This course should be played many times and savored.". The course is difficult to describe – you'll have to try it.

BORNHOLM

Even though Bornholm is a Danish island, it is actually closer to both Sweden (37 km) and Germany (88 km) than Denmark (135 km). Bornholm has been under both Swedish and German rule, but in 1658, Bornholm defeated the Swedish occupying power and gave back the island to the Danish king.

Since the beginning of the 20th century, Bornholm's spectacular nature has attracted tourists from all over Europe. And despite the modest size of the island – the longest distance is 40 km – the nature varies dramatically. To the north, the rocks tower towards the blue sky. To the south, the white sand is so fine that the emperor Napoleon himself used it in his hourglass.

Bornholm is blessed with a relaxed and inspiring atmosphere that always has attracted artists. The island is home for many skilled painters and arts- and craftsmen and one of Europe's beacons for glass design.

Gastronomy is a very strong theme on Bornholm. The island is home to a number of makers of local foodstuff and you can find handmade sausages, organic ice cream and gourmet liquorices among many other delicacies. Bornholm has become synonymous with high quality products.

The island has its own special historical background. In the 12th century the Knights Templars used Bornholm as their base for crusades in the Baltic countries. Presumably, the Knights Templars had in their possession some of Christianities' greatest treasures – for instance the Holy Grail – and new theories point to Bornholm as a possible hiding place.

Many hundreds of years later, Bornholm was NATO's advanced observation post towards the eastern bloc as well as centre for exciting espionage and defection stories.

Bornholm – welcome to golf, sunshine and experiences.
